

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

FIRST CAPITAL PARTNERS COMPLETES ACQUISITIONS IN WASHINGTON AND WISCONSIN

Omaha, Neb. (Nov. 29, 2007) – First Capital Partners, LLC announced that it recently completed the acquisitions of UPF Services, LLC, and Wisconsin Film and Bag, Inc., said David McLeese, the firm’s managing partner.

“We are very pleased to announce these acquisitions, both of which represent leading companies within their industries,” said McLeese. “We look forward to working with the management teams and our investment partners to build value in each of these companies.”

First Capital Partners is a private equity and mezzanine capital firm that is focused on making investments in middle-market manufacturing and service businesses.

UPF Services, LLC, which stands for Universal Property and Flood, is based in Spokane, Washington, and provides outsourced business services to over 250 banks and credit unions across the nation. Its services include flood certificates, tax services, deed of trust reconveyance services, and Uniform Commercial Code services, among others.

First Capital Partners was joined by Denver-based Lynwood Capital and Minneapolis-based GMB Mezzanine Capital in the acquisition of UPF. The investors completed the acquisition of the firm using a combination of mezzanine capital and equity. The terms of the acquisition were not disclosed. David McLeese was elected to the firm’s board of directors.

Wisconsin Film and Bag, based in Green Bay, Wisconsin, is a manufacturer of plastic film and bags for industrial uses. The firm was acquired by First Capital Partners along with Minneapolis-based Marquette Capital and Philadelphia-based Argosy Partners. The management team of Wisconsin Film and Bag also acquired a significant stake in the firm.

The investors acquired their interests through a combination of mezzanine capital and equity. The terms of the acquisition were not disclosed. Wesley Hampp, a managing director of First Capital Partners, was elected to the firm’s board of directors.

First Capital Partners seeks mezzanine capital and private equity investments ranging from $2 million to $10 million in profitable businesses in the lower middle-market, which McLeese defined as companies with revenues generally between $5 million and $100 million and operating profits of $2 million to $10 million. McLeese noted that First Capital Partners plans to invest up to $60 million in middle-market businesses over the next three years. The firm has offices in Omaha, Nebraska, and Overland Park, Kansas.

First Capital Partners, LLC is a wholly owned subsidiary of First National of Nebraska, Inc., which has grown into the largest private banking company in the United States. First National and its affiliates, which includes First National Bank of Omaha, have $20 billion in managed assets and over 7,500 employee associates located in 35 states. Primary banking offices are located in Nebraska, Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, South Dakota and Texas.
